TWO DAYS SPENT DRAWING A JURY IN MURDER CASE

Extra Venires of Talesmen Exhausted in the Behner Case at Alma

EXPECT TO COMPLETE JURY TO START TRIAL WEDNESDAY

Defendant Will Plead Self-Defense in Killing Marshal

By C. R. WEST
(Staff Correspondent)
ALMA, Wis.—With a regular and special venire of talesmen exhausted and prospects of being compelled to call another venire before the jury can be completed, two days have been spent in circuit court at Alma getting ready to try Enoch Behner on a charge of murdering John Cantanben, marshal of Alma, in a cabin quarrel last November. At noon indications were the jury might be sworn in late this afternoon, so the taking testimony could start Wednesday morning. Behner will plead self-defense.

In the examination of talesmen this morning, Mrs. Helwig, Mrs. Trowbridge, Mrs. White, Mrs. Engler and Mrs. Senne were excused. In the next another venire of talesmen is required, they will probably be drawn from the crowd which fills the courtroom, so there may be further delays in the work of drawing a jury.

R. R. Corrie examined talesmen for the defense, and Schubert Gilman, special assistant prosecutor, interrogated them for the state. Considerable stress was laid on the principle of self-defense and the entire panel was closely questioned by Mr. Corrie as to their belief regarding that principle. Al said they believed in the principle of self-defense, with certain limitations.

Russell Smith, Jr., the only resident of the city of Alma, scene of the double murder, on the original panel, was dismissed by Judge Thompson after he had told the court and counsel that he had formed an opinion of the case that could hardly be changed even by evidence in the case submitted in the court.

First Panel Exhausted
The first panel of prospective jurors was composed of Russell Smith, Jr., city of Alma; Dick Van Wald, town of Alma; Eugene Paul, Oscar Weinand, William Hammer and Joseph Thorg of Reiderd; John Lind, Henry Koehender, Mrs. Eva Mohak and Charles Stewert of Caledonia; Francis Paulson of Canton; Fred Butler and Elmer Schneider of Cross; Oris Kilnes, Ward Kren and Clarence Roghelt of Dover; A. L. Wunderlich, Roscoe Stoll and Mrs. Edward Krehmer of Fountain City; Leich Myers of Gilman; Engelhart Schmidt of Glenora; Henry Rabin, bath of Lincoln; Irene Fischer and Carl Berg, city of Montfort; Fred Hardy and David Sonn, town of Montfort; George Stiel of Menomonie; William Jensen and Tom Blaser of Mondak; Noble Gies and Bonnie Eide of Naples; P. M. Jacobson, Louis Larson, Robert Gibson and Neil Pures of Nelson; and David August of Waumandee.

Dismissals because of opinions, excuses from service for two, Mrs. Krehmer and Mr. Stiel, and strikes by the state and defense, reduced the number of prospective jurors to nine men, making it necessary for Judge Thompson to order Clerk of Court Ulrich to issue a special venire of 30 talesmen to report Tuesday morning. These on the special panel are:

Fred Grub, Marcus Granholtz and Herman Schultz of Alma; Thomas

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA WANTS TO KNOW ABOUT MYSTERIOUS LIGHT IN SKY

SAN BERNARDINO, Calif.—A bright red light in the southerly heavens attracted wide attention here Monday night. For more than half an hour the object resembled the tail of a comet. At 9:15 the light faded. Professor H. A. Richardson, a local astronomer, said it probably was the tail of a meteor. He could not determine whether the light faded because of the intervening of clouds or whether the object itself disappeared.

RIVERSIDE, Calif.—Many residents of Riverside and adjacent territory speculated Tuesday over a bright red light visible in the southerly heavens from about 8:30 to 9 o'clock Monday night.

Some said it seemed to move "about six feet in half an hour," and that it resembled a small section of the Milky Way except that it was red. Telephone inquiries from as far as Corona, fifteen miles south, were received.

RUSSIAN REDS PATTERN AFTER U. S. IN WAR ON ILLEGAL BOOTLEG VODKA

MOSCOW.—By the Associated Press.—The Russian government has declared war on bootleggers and manufacturers of illicit "vodka," and the campaign is duplicating in many scenes the situation in New York and other American cities.

The sale of wines and beers is legal in Russia, but the soviet regime has continued the war policy established early in 1918, of banning vodka and other stronger intoxicants. There are now being made in huge quantities illicitly and nearly every one of Moscow's newly rich has his private source of supply.

EX-PREMIER URGES BRITISH ASK U. S. TO BLOCK FRANCE

Insists French Move in Ruhr Means Disaster; Wants U. S. Aid Invited

BONAR LAW REFUSES TO ACT BECAUSE OF FRENCH HOSTILITY

Says Intervention Would be Unable to Get Results

LONDON.—By The Associated Press.—Prime Minister Bonar Law stated in the house of commons Tuesday that it would not be proper for Great Britain to initiate a discussion with the American government as to whether the French action in the Ruhr was in accordance with the treaty of Versailles, since the United States was not a party to the treaty.

The premier's statement was in answer to a question by J. C. Wedgwood, laborite, whether Great Britain would ascertain the views of the United States on the subject for the purpose of adopting a common policy "seeing that the action of France in occupying the Ruhr without the cooperation of the allies is hardly in accordance with their legitimate powers under the Versailles treaty and in view of the expressed opinions of Senator Rorah."

LONDON.—By the Associated Press.—Scent hope for British intervention at this time in the dispute between France and Germany is to be gleaned from Premier Bonar Law's speech in the house of commons last evening. The premier concluded the debate on the joint liberal amendment to the address in reply to the speech from the throne calling upon the league of nations, with the help of America, to investigate Germany's ability to pay reparations. The amendment was lost by a vote of 305 to 196.

France Hostile to More
The prime minister, answering some of the points of an appeal by David Lloyd George, to Great Britain and America to save France from what he termed a dangerous position, informed the house that intervention by a league commission, as proposed in the amendment, would be considered by France as an act of hostility. He asserted that the government's policy was to keep British troops on the Rhine "as long as possible."

Former Prime Minister Lloyd George, in the debate, characterized the French action in the Ruhr as a repetition of the psychological blunder the Germans made in 1914. He contended it was essential that America should participate in the solution.

Mr. Lloyd George contended that the important thing was to get America in, with or without league of nations action. He did not believe that France, however obsessed, could refuse an offer made by the two greatest powers on earth, that had saved her from being in the position Germany was now occupying.

Bonar Law at Test
"I entreat the government," concluded Mr. Lloyd George, "to take the initiative first by approaching the United States and then with them approaching France. Then I believe both together will be able to surmount the difficulty."

The house was at the peak of excitement when Herbert Fisher, liberal, arose to move the joint liberal amendment to the address in reply to the speech from the throne. The voting upon the motion later in the day was expected to prove the first real test of the government strength in battle against the combined forces of the opposition.

Fight Shy of Ruhr
Mr. Fisher said that though there be division on the amendment, nothing must mask the fact that the overwhelming opinion of the house and of the nation was that the government should not be associated with the French enterprise in the Ruhr.

Asked whether he had assented to the transportation of goods under French supervision across any part of the British occupied territory in Germany, Prime Minister Bonar Law said certain proposals were discussed with representatives of the French government, but that he preferred to make no statement until later.

French Pride Obstacle
Replying to Mr. Lloyd George's contention that France had blundered seriously and that America and Great Britain were called upon to act, Mr. Bonar Law said that he, too, did not approve of the French step, but that opposition apparently could accomplish little or nothing, inasmuch as the pride of France in force

COMMONS SUPPORTS HUBER BILL BEFORE SENATE COMMITTEE

Says It Protects Wage-earner as Investor is Now Protected

HUBER DECLARES BILL WON'T RAISE TAXATION

Declares it Will Cause More Caution in Hiring, Firing

MADISON, Wis.—That capitalism has failed to give the wage earner that security of his job which it has given to the investor in the security of his investment was the declaration of Professor John R. Commons, professor of economics at the University of Wisconsin, speaking in behalf of the Huber unemployment insurance bill before the senate committee on judiciary this afternoon.

The bill, which is aimed to give workers all-year jobs, was heard before about 400 employers and members of labor organizations. The bill was drafted by Professor Commons for Senator Henry Huber who introduced the measure.

Employer is Responsible
"The wage earner and the investor are much alike," Professor Commons said. "They are passive. They work and wait. They want wages, interest and security. But the business man is the dynamic factor. He initiates, plans, overcomes risks, takes responsibilities. He is the captain of industry. The law makes him responsible for the security of investments but does not make him responsible for the security of jobs."

It was the over-expansion of 1919 that caused the collapse of 1920. Hence any improvement that looks to the prevention of unemployment must go back to the period of inflation and prevent the over-expansion that caused unemployment.

Professor Commons said that there are three causes of unemployment—the labor turnover, the seasons and the credit system.

High Wages Insurance
High wages paid in the building trades in some sections represent a form of unemployment insurance. Professor Commons said. He explained that these men are paid $1 an hour but that they have but one trade and work but eight months in the year. As a result they average only about 66 cents an hour and 33 cents an hour can be considered unemployment insurance for the winter's idleness.

"Not one dollar of tax burden will be added by the passage of this bill," declared Senator Henry Huber. "Industry must solve its own problems. Industry will profit by so doing."

He explained that seasonable industries are exempted as are also small employers and storekeepers employing less than six. Farmers also do not come under the act, he said.

Industry Will Hesitate
"The cure for unemployment is employment," he continued. Hence if industry is required to pay $1 a day to the worker out of work it will hesitate before the men are laid off. They will plan their work ahead. They will hire and fire more cautiously. An employee must have worked six months in the state to come under the act.

"The worker wants a job, not charity. That is why he is paid so little. No compensation is paid for unemployment caused by labor troubles, dismissal for reasonable cause, or for men who voluntarily quit their jobs. He gets no pay if he refused other work for which he was reasonably fitted."

EIGHT EFFORTS TO DEFEND THE GUARD SMASHED; RULES OFF

House Procedure Suspended to Rush Bill Through and to Senate

EXPECT BLAINE TO FORCE COMPROMISE SAVING W. N. G.

Governor Reported Not in Sympathy With Scheme

MADISON, Wis.—By the Associated Press.—The Wisconsin national guard lost the second battle in its fight for existence today when the assembly, by a vote of 64 to 14, refused to indefinitely postpone the Polakowski bill calling for complete abolition of the state's military force. Rules were then suspended by a 61 to 17 vote and the measure finally passed by acclamation.

Eight times friends of the national guard went down to defeat as the steam roller tactics of the coalition between administration forces and socialists forced the measure safely over every legislative pitfall. As a final victory those backing the bill suspended the rules for a second time by a 63 to 15 vote and immediately messaged the measure to the senate for action by that body.

Blaine Forces Vote to Back Bill
There was little doubt over the proposal from either of the factions. A caucus of administration members held Monday night decided unanimously to throw its force behind the bill and on the vote carried out this decision.

The fight opened when Assemblyman Frank Prescott, Milwaukee, dubbed the bill calling for abolition of the guard a "pet measure of the socialists." To go on record favoring a socialist movement would give the state a "black eye," he said.

Assemblyman H. J. Peterson, Milwaukee, spoke in opposition to the measure, declaring that the legislature "cannot eliminate something of outstanding credit to Wisconsin in one sweep. The Wisconsin National guard," he said, "is a credit to the state. It has never failed. It came back and asked for the bonus and got a kick. Now the legislature wants to hit them another rap. It is most ungrateful, this thing the legislature is attempting to do."

Assemblyman Sixtus Lindsa, Superior, said that he was supporting the bill as a means of tax reduction inasmuch as abolition of the guard would cut the expense of state government nearly $1,000,000 annually. He declared that he was a "rock-ribbed republican" and that he, with other members, was not voting for the proposal in the interest of socialist propaganda as charged.

No Argument for Bill
Friends of the bill, confident of their strength, made no open attempt to urge its passage. They offered no debate, but with Assemblyman Thomas Duncan, Milwaukee, socialist, as their spokesman, they moved with regularity to push the proposal over every step of the way from the committee through the lower house to the senate.

Assemblyman Prescott moved to indefinitely postpone the bill. This move was defeated, 64 to 14. Peterson then moved a call of the house. There were not enough supporters for this move. Peterson then made a motion to lay the bill on the table. This was voted down by acclamation. Then the proposal was engrossed without a roll-call.

At this juncture Assemblyman Prescott charged that Assemblyman Duncan was taking advantage of the absence of members to push through the bill. A laugh greeted his suggestion.

Suspend Rules—No Vote
Assemblyman Duncan moved at once to suspend the rules and put the bill on final passage. This was successful, 61 to 17. Passage was given by acclamation. Once again rules were suspended, 62 to 15, and the bill went to the senate.

In the senate harder sledding is predicted for the proposal to abolish the national guard. As a result of the assembly action Governor

HEALTH DEPARTMENT URGES CO-OPERATION IN PRESENT EPIDEMIC

Influenza is Reportable Disease and Homes Must be Placarded, Says Officer

Co-operation of citizens in the present epidemic of colds and influenza is urged in a statement issued by A. M. Murphy, health officer, Tuesday.

The statement is as follows:

Influenza is a reportable disease and placarding of the home is necessary in order to comply with the law and protect the public. Reporting cases three or four days after treating a case for influenza will not do if it is attempted to prevent spread of the disease.

Cases should be reported immediately to the health department by phone or in writing. Do not wait until a number of deaths occur and the disease has become more serious and beyond control. Several cases that have been mild at first, a few days ago, got outdoors are now down with pneumonia and other complications and are in a serious condition.

Do as Health authorities recommended in our last serious epidemic. Remain indoors until temperature is normal for at least 4 days.

The present force in the Health Department is unable to assume additional work as it cannot begin to follow up the absentees in the schools, such having from 50 to 100 absent. One school, the Holy Trinity was closed Tuesday, teachers all being stricken with the disease. About 50 pupils absent was reported from this one school Monday. Several families called Tuesday morning saying "we are all down, confined to bed and want a nurse to call."

Physicians will report all cases and especially complicated cases and the responsible heads of families will send their reports into the department—this includes all having charge of children or any one responsible for the care of them or others. We will do our utmost to see that the law is enforced.

If we are unable to handle the situation I am sure the fine spirit shown by other agencies during our last epidemic will again come to our aid.

Schools, managers of theatres, and other places of assembly are cautioned not to permit crowding and to dismiss all persons from their places with bad colds and especially those sneezing.

I want to serve notice on all such if they do not comply with the law in this respect that these places will be closed temporarily and at once. One would expect that people would not have to be instructed in regard to this matter when they know the danger, surely every adult does.

By A. M. MURPHY,
Health Officer.

MANY PUPILS ILL OUT OF SCHOOL

As a result of an epidemic of bad colds and grippe, there were over 800 pupils out of school today, according to Superintendent B. E. McCormick. This is the largest number of absentees this winter. It has not been found necessary to close any of the schools. In the high school there were 140 absentees today.

WARNING ISSUED TO STOCKHOLDERS IN OIL COMPANY

Attempt Being Made to Obtain Money on Confidence Scheme Says Warning

MADISON, Wis.—The securities division of the railroad commission Tuesday issued a warning to stockholders in the Elubank Oil company that an attempt is being made by persons representing themselves as stockholders' committee to obtain money from them under a confidence scheme.

"It has come to our attention," the division said, "that a letter is being sent to stockholders of the Elubank company, signed by J. E. Jones, J. R. Reese and A. H. Johnson, representing themselves as the stockholders' committee, and advising the stockholders to purchase bonds of Texas Oil & Refining company and to exchange their shares for shares of that company."

"Inasmuch as the offer is sent through the mails from outside the state we cannot require any information to be furnished by the company and have none, but we feel we should say that the proposition has all the appearance of a scheme to get money from those that will bite."

The division said that it is entirely probable that names signed to the letter are fictitious since they do not appear as stockholders.

The "Scorpion"

THE Scorpion incident closed happily enough, and perhaps it might well be forgotten on the theory that "least said, soonest mended," but it seems rather important to emphasize the fact that to whatever extent it constituted an attempt to defy university authority, it signally failed.

The significance of this lies in the probability that those who launched it set the stage deliberately as a melodramatic assault upon university authority. We say "deliberate" because one who read the first issue is compelled to concede to the Scorpion's editors a mental capability of understanding quite clearly what they were doing. In their first number they violated a university rule which requires official sanction for papers classing themselves as university activities. Hardly was the ink dry before they were working in the legislature for the purpose of coercing the university into submission.

Following this, Dean Goodnight made public the rule, which was to the effect that they must obtain sanction, or abandon their classification as a college paper. Should they do the latter, they might, as individuals, continue their private enterprise as private citizens, without interfering with their right to remain students.

Friday it was announced that all reference to connection with the university would be dropped, and that the student editors would conduct their enterprise as private business of private citizens.

In other words, they complied with the university rule which, at the outset, they had defied.

Perhaps they found less backing for their insurgency than they had expected. It is possible that state administration leaders, coming rather rapidly into university control, may finally have concluded that at a moment when that authority was soon to be theirs, it would be poor policy to weaken or destroy it. Or, perchance, the Scorpion editors defied university authority in toto, in the belief that they were creating an issue to carry which university authority would forego any notion of censorship of a non-student publication issued for student consumption and designed to adversely criticize the university on occasion.

But, the whys and wherefores on the side, two important facts stand out. One is that an assault upon essential university authority utterly failed; the other is that the university will not attempt to censor unofficial student criticism of university matters.

There will always be student interests in politics. They will range from political mewling and pawing to fairly well matured political opinion. They will cover the ground from canonical expressions of reactionary bigotry to youth's ridiculous assumption of infinite and absolute authority. The voice of Mammon's deity will be answered by those who assail as the typical reactionaries whoever happens to be president, John D. Rockefeller, and God. In the babble will be heard those who hold poverty in contempt and those who condescendingly forgive Jehovah for His errors which they are about to correct. Nothing matters about it all excepting that all shall find self-expression, quite regardless of merit, and that in their efforts at self-expression they shall pay due respect to the principle that, even though in the hands of a given personnel it may be badly conceived and badly administered, law is essential to any great enterprise.

It is in no patronizing sense that the La Crosse Tribune welcomes the "Scorpion" to the sisterhood of Wisconsin journalism. If its editors still are in the blissful state of youth in which one is infallible, and we in that more restless age in which men are certain of almost nothing, we do but represent stages through which normal people pass. We have no regrets for the more positive convictions of our younger years, nor do we hold them to have been without value to our kind. The world needs youth with its crusader spirit, it needs the middle years of closer analysis, and even it requires the effete time of "wise saws" and sometimes ridiculous "sacred" precedents. All are part of nature's plan. The young fellows carry the ball, and if at times they "boot it," at least they keep it going.

The Cry of the Soul

(By Rev. JOHN NEWTON STRAIN, Ph. D., D. D., North Presbyterian Church.)

"THEY have taken away my Lord, and I know not where they have laid Him." The depths of the agony of the heart are too deep for words to fathom and yet there is an agony deeper far than this. The Master has been crucified, and buried. Now one stands by the open grave, but the grave is empty. He was not there. Dazed, stupefied, bewildered, unable to move, she stands peering into an empty tomb. A step is heard behind her, turning a tear stained face, and with her soul on her tongue she sobbed out, "They have taken away my Lord, and I know not where they have laid Him." Cold, hard hearted, indeed, the one who can feel none of the thrill of sympathy for this broken hearted woman at the tomb of Jesus.

Her loss is little by the side of the loss that this cry suggests to us. What if they never had found Him, and many never have. She wept for the loss of the outward, only the bodily form of Jesus. What if, the once incarnate Jesus never had been found, and the Son of God, the Savior of the world, had been lost to her, and all of us, fathomless the cry of the woman then. If the personality that once animated that body that was placed in a borrowed tomb, the Christ, has been lost, all reality, and real life has been lost, and the agony of the words are beyond our reach. "They have taken away my Lord, and I know not where they have laid Him."

Place it upon the lowest level of life possible, that of the worldly man who lives only for gain. To the man of business we say, the Christmas sales are the largest of all the year, the greatest boon of all boons to business, Jesus. Can you not see the mail-man bringing Christmas gifts to your door and all doors? Do you see it so at any other time of all the year?

The incarnate Son of God has made that woman a new creature. The supposed gardener speaks, it's the familiar voice of other days, "Mary." The leap of the heart is in the words, "My Lord and Master." Can you imagine the joy of the heart of that woman that first glad Easter morn? Hers is a joy so great no tongue of man can tell it, only those who have personal experience can understand it, for He is alive for ever more. He is King of kings, and Lord of lords. He is the Lord of life and glory. Remember, it was Jesus who had taught her the purity of love, and the reality of redemption.

Harry Taggart, secretary of the Merchants' Association, today circulated a petition among the businessmen of lower Main street to provide for the extension of the "White Way" down that street to Riverside Park and the levee. Mr. Taggart says results are gratifying and that he expects the work will be accomplished in a short time. Mr. Taggart will make an effort in the near future to have the "White Way" extended north on Fourth street to the postoffice and west on Pearl to Second street.

Selecting Jane's Husband

By H. IRVING KING

Mr. and Mrs. Davison sat in conference over their daughter, Jane. They were a couple well along in years. Jane was their youngest child—and she was twenty-five. The fact that Jane was no longer a child and that it was high time she took to herself a husband, had dawned upon her father and mother rather suddenly.

Mrs. Davison was portly, prosperous and pompous. Her dark hair, parted from a neighboring brickyard, and her house was the largest, and had the whitest paint and the greenest blinds of any in town. Mrs. Davison was portly, like her husband, and an exceedingly comfortable looking matron.

"Well," replied Mother Davison, "there's Hiram Blake, he would marry Jane in a minute if given half a chance."

"Hiram's got money," mused Papa Davison. "He's got money, but he's forty-five. It's a day and too stout and solemn for Jane, anyway. What do you think of Caswell, my head clerk at the yard? He's smart, bound to get ahead, and just the right age for Jane."

"Not a cent to bless himself with except what you pay him," returned the mother. "Jane must look higher than that. There's that Mr. Mallory who is staying at the Beach Hotel. He's been very attentive to Jane all summer. He's about thirty. I should judge, apparently a gentleman, and not as if he had money. I think Jane is more likely to like him. I ever knew her to be with any other young man."

"But we don't know anything about him," replied Papa Davison. "Do you think Jane is in love with him?"

"I rather think she is going to be if she is not already," answered the fond mother. "Suppose you look him up, Papa. They canvassed a few other eligible candidates for the position of son-in-law, and the conference ended by an agreement that Mr. Davison should look up Mr. Augustus Mallory, and if his character and means were found satisfactory, he should be invited to fill the post of Jane's husband. Such a serious matter, I ever knew her to be with any other young man."

"What for?"

"I am going to be married to a girl in Boston."

"Certainly," replied the mother. "When old men build companies they don't want to have them pulled down about their ears. Papa walked down and looked out of his office window upon the road leading from the Beach Hotel to the town. Down the road came two persons on horseback. One was a young lady, rather large of figure but strikingly beautiful, and wearing a face of merriment and glowing with health. Her reddish brown hair shone in the sunlight and an unruly strand of hair had broken out on her forehead. Her escort was a young man whose bearing was covered by the word "distinguished" and who, on his horse, rode a gentleman.

The pair were Augustus Mallory and Jane Davison. They were both dressed in very latest riding apparel and made an attractive couple. They had taken to riding together much of late.

"Hiram's got money," mused Papa Davison. "He's got money, but he's forty-five. It's a day and too stout and solemn for Jane, anyway. What do you think of Caswell, my head clerk at the yard? He's smart, bound to get ahead, and just the right age for Jane."

proceeded to write several letters of inquiry to New York. The letters finished, he had a caller, Hiram Blake, who came to see about contracting for a building he proposed erecting in the town. Mr. Blake had a large "model farm" about four miles from the town, owned much real estate in the town and had many other profitable investments. "Suppose you call on him," suggested Mother Davison, "and if his character and means were found satisfactory, he should be invited to fill the post of Jane's husband. Such a serious matter, I ever knew her to be with any other young man."

Lose Your Fat, Keep Your Health

Suppose you are not healthy, neither is it healthy to diet or exercise too much for its removal. The simplest method known for reducing the excess fat loads easily and speedily is the Marmola Method, tried and endorsed by thousands. Marmola's Prescription Tablets contain an active dose of the famous Marmola Prescription and are sold by druggists all over the world at one dollar for a case. They are harmless and taste like a drink of water. They are popular because effective and convenient. Ask your druggist for them or send for a direct to the Marmola Co., 111 Woodward Ave., Detroit, Mich. and procure a case.

passed. Jane and Mallory rode together more and more. The looking up of the young man showed him to be a married, middle-aged person. Mr. and Mrs. Davison went into conference again and Mallory became son-in-law-elect. "Well," said Mother Davison, "that's settled. Now we must tell Jane. For some young love will have its way."

"Just as it did when you and I were married, Papa," said Papa Davison. "I never happy," replied Mother Davison, "and it's the best way after all." The door opened and in came Jane, all flushed from a ride with Mallory.

"Oh, daddy," she cried, "we've had such a jolly ride. We rode out to Mr. Blake's farm. It's a wonderful place. Augustus says he's going to have one just like it."

"Augustus," said Mrs. Davison, "impressed upon my father and I have been talking over Mr. Mallory, and we have decided that if he proposes to you we have no objection to your accepting him."

"Oh, but he has proposed, and I have rejected him," cried Jane. "What?" exclaimed father and mother together.

"Yes," said Jane demurely. "He proposed today. Augustus is all right for a friend, but don't quite come up to my idea of a husband. Besides, I accepted Hiram Blake yesterday."

BOARD OF CONTROL PLANS TO OUTLINE NEW STATE POLICY

Will Call in Prof. Gillen and
Dr. Lorenz to Advise on Special Subjects

URGE TWO NEW ASYLUM BUILDINGS FOR STATE

Insane Now Get too Little Care
Due to Overcrowding

MADISON, Wis.—By the Associated Press.—The three members of the Wisconsin state board of control are at present making an intensive study of the 17 state charitable and penal institutions, with a view to determining their particular needs and of mapping out a policy that will govern the care of inmates. Mrs. Elizabeth Kading, president, announced Tuesday.

Mrs. Kading and John D. Morrissey, former superintendent of public property, were recently appointed to the board by Governor Blaine. They are the only members of the board who have not been named two years ago. All three members are traveling together during their present survey of the state institutions.

Will Call in Prof. Gillen
"After we have acquainted ourselves with the charitable and penal institutions, and have determined their particular needs, we plan to hold conferences to consider and decide upon the best policy to be pursued in administering the board duties," Mrs. Kading said. "In this we will not overlook the important social and humanitarian problems that will confront us."

It is believed that Professor J. G. Gillen, University of Wisconsin sociologist, and Dr. W. F. Lorenz, director of the Wisconsin Psychiatric Institute, will take a prominent part in mapping out a new policy to be followed in operating the state's charitable and penal institutions.

Three More Asylum Rooms
A longer period of time should be given in state hospitals for the treatment of acute insane according to a report which was sent to the legislature on Tuesday by the state board of control.

"At the present time the capacity of the state and northern hospitals for the insane is about 1,500, divided equally or nearly so, between the sexes." The report says, "More than that number of in sane persons are committed annually to the hospitals for insane, so that the average period of treatment of persons admitted to the hospitals for insane is less than one year. The best authorities claim that the treatment of the average insane person should be continued for a period of two years or more. It will, therefore, be necessary to either provide another institution or enlarge the two hospitals for the insane to meet the demands upon them."

Two Buildings Asked
"The board is of the opinion that a new two-story building for the care and treatment of the insane at the Northern hospital should be provided. This building will cost approximately $250,000 and we recommend that such a building be provided or that provision be made for a new institution in the northwestern part of the state. The central state hospital for the insane has not had the capacity of any time since its establishment to take care of the original insane in the state. It is now in an overcrowded condition. An appropriation has been made for two new buildings at that institution, but when these buildings are completed it will not meet the needs for capacity at the central state hospital. It is believed that another ward building should be built in addition to the building for which appropriations have been made."

The report shows that there has been a large increase in the number of dependent children in the state, and that where the expense for the care of 687 dependent children in 1913 was only $36,000, during the past year there were 9,110 dependent children cared for by the state at an expense of $293,341.

BOY SCOUT BIRD HOUSE CONTEST NEXT BIG EVENT

City Will be Divided into Three Sections for the Second Annual Competition

On April 8, 1922, the bird house contest for the Boy Scouts of La Crosse was ended, and a group of very anxious Scouts assembled at the Elks club to await the decision of the judges, composed of a committee headed by J. M. Kuntz, president of the local scouters' union.

This year the bird house contest will close on March 17. All bird houses should be labeled with the name of the type of bird for which it is intended, the name of the Scout, the troop, and his address on a tag securely fastened to the bird house, and delivered at the Chamber of Commerce not later than six o'clock on the evening of Saturday, March 17th.

The city will be divided into three sections: section one, on the north side, consisting of troops 1, 10, 17, 20, 23, 24, 25, 26, and West Salem. Section two, will include all troops north of Cass street, consisting of troops 2, 3, 4, 5, 8, 9, 11, 15 and 18.

Section three will comprise all troops south of Cass street, consisting of troops 6, 7, 12, 13, 14, 16, 19, 21, 22 and 27.

The first prize will be five days at camp; second prize, three days, and the third prize, one day at camp.

The winner for the best bird house in the whole city will be awarded an extra two days, allowing him one week at camp for his efforts.

In addition to the prize awarded, the Scout also receives credit in his first class work, as Test No. 8, in handicraft, requires that a Scout make a bird house and feeding tray in any design, and he should make every effort to make his work on the bird house win him recognition in the bird house contest, and also in his work for the first class.

Lift Off with Fingers

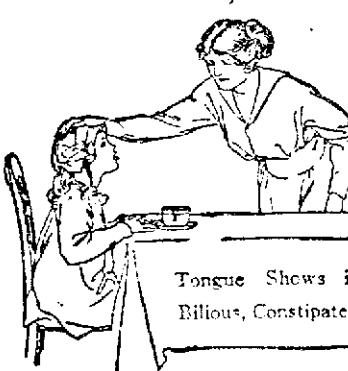

Doesn't hurt a bit! Drop a little "Freezone" on an aching corn. Instantly that corn stops hurting. Then shortly you lift it right off with fingers.

Your druggist sells a tiny bottle of "Freezone" for a few cents, sufficient to remove every hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, and the calluses, without soreness or irritation.

MOTHER! GIVE CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP

Child's Best Laxative To Clean the System

Tongue Shows if Bilious, Constipated

Hurry mother! Even a cross, sick child loves the "fruity" taste of "California Fig Syrup" and it never fails to open the bowels. A teaspoonful today may prevent a sick child tomorrow. If constipated, bilious, feverish, fretful, has cold, colic, or if stomach is sour, tongue coated, breath bad, remember a good cleansing of the little bowels is often all that is necessary.

Ask your druggist for genuine "California Fig Syrup" which has directions for babies and children of all ages printed on bottle. Method: You must say "California" or you may get an imitation fig syrup.

FURBELOW ON FOOD MAKE IT TASTE BETTER

Expert Advises Trimmings Which Add to Acceptability of Any Foods

By MARIAN HALE

The American girl's clever at refurbishing her gowns and making herself picturesque, but not quite so good when it comes to trimming up the food she puts on the dinner table.

This is the observation of Mrs. Erickson Hammond, who's been running a Swedish, French and American cookery school in New York for 23 years, besides writing several books on the subject.

"Put some frills on the chops occasionally," she advises.

"Give the roast a corsage of vegetables and let the sardine come out of his can and recline on a bed of lettuce."

After Home Cooking

"In this delicious age many men leave home looking for home-made food. They'd be easy to keep by their own firesides if their wives said it with biscuits."

"Making food look attractive is as important as cooking it."

A few curly curls, some parsley or watercress, slices of radish or tomato, pimiento, olives or slices of hard-boiled eggs make the simplest meat dishes inviting.

"Rings of cucumber and thin slices of lemon dipped in chopped parsley and paprika give the professional touch to fish composites."

A set of individual jelly molds will enable you to satisfy a family's dessert cravings with such uncomplicated things as fruit jelly or even blanc mange.

Color Has Its Value

There's no limit to what may be done with fancy ice creams in molds or in combination with the various fancy waters and cakes, made into baskets or nest-like containers.

Individual cup cakes can be made decorative with fancy jelings, and a little ingenuity with the pastry tube.

And don't limit the pastry tube to pastries. Mashed potatoes or puree of peas, passed through it, will make a fine decorative border for your meat courses. Use it also for mayonnaise, vegetable salads and with mayonnaise for sweet dishes.

Remember that color appeals to the eye, and that beets, tomatoes, green peppers, pimientos, carrots and all such foods have a decorative as well as an alimentary value.

GOOD MANNERS

A note of condolence or a brief visit to a family which has lost a member by death is a necessary social duty, but anything in the nature of intrusion upon such grief is unkind and inconsiderate, not to mention bad form. During at least the conventional mourning period the family unquestionably will appreciate solitude, except as to the closest personal friends.

HOUSEHOLD SUGGESTIONS

YOUR PIES COCOANUT TOO DRY?

Sometimes shredded coconut gets very dry standing in the cupboard. It can be freshened and greatly improved by soaking it in sweet milk a few minutes before using it.

USE HOT WATER

Your tinware will keep much better if you wash it in hot, soapy water and dry it with a towel. Drying it on the stove darkens it, and sometimes melts it.

When you want your pies to be brown on top brush them with milk.

KEEPING THEM HANDY

If you will keep an envelope pasted on the inside of your cook book it will take care of the recipes you clip from other sources and you may be able to find them when you want them.

POLISHING IVORY

You can restore the color to ivory-handled knives and forks when they have become discolored or old by rubbing them with very fine sandpaper or emery.

CARE OF WATER BAGS

Even the most expensive of hot-water bags seldom reach a ripe old age. This is largely because they are not cared for properly. If, after each using, you will blow the bag full of air and screw in the stopper you will prevent the sides from sticking together, and consequently from rotting or tearing.

Plain In Form But Vivid In Color Scheme

Most of the new frocks are trimmed in front and severely plain in the rear. Usually the trimming isn't of the flamboyant sort, but merges into the lines of the frock; it's the color that makes it noticeable.

The models sketched show the pointed front panels and jabot draperies worn and shown everywhere.

Paisley and Persian designs remain the favorites for trimmings, as well as being much in demand for gowns.

POACHED EGGS ASPARAGUS

BY BERTHA E. SHAPLEIGH
For poached eggs, with asparagus tips and sauce, a good luncheon or supper dish, take:

Six eggs, an equal number of slices of toast from which crusts have been removed, a can of asparagus tips, a cup and a half of milk, three tablespoons each of butter and flour, half a teaspoon each of salt and grated cheese and an eighth teaspoon of pepper.

First make the sauce, melting the butter and adding flour, seasonings and milk. Cook until smooth and thick, then add cheese and keep hot over water.

Poach the eggs in the usual way and heat the asparagus tips. Place the toast on a platter or individual plates, cover with part of the sauce and on it place the eggs. Pour the remaining sauce over the eggs and serve asparagus tips between the eggs.

Sprinkle with paprika.

BUSINESS WOMEN MAY SOON OPEN OWN CLUB ROOMS

Committee Named at Monday Meeting to Look Into Matter of Quarters

PLANS looking to the establishment of club rooms by the La Crosse Business Women's club were taken at a meeting of the organization Monday evening at the Y. W. C. A. A committee was named to look into the matter and report to the club. It is understood several locations are under consideration.

Good progress in raising the sums allotted to them was reported by chairman of the various divisions of the club. Dr. Mary Piper Houck, of the first division, reported receipts of $40 from a food sale; the second division, under Mrs. G. Connor, raised $244 from the sale of movie tickets; and Miss Margaret Kearney, speaking for the third division, reported receipts of $51 from a card party. The fourth division, under Miss Irene Baker, appointed chairman upon the resignation of Miss Bergetha Thompson, announced a food sale for Saturday at the Doerflinger balcony.

The club met for dinner at the Y. W. C. A. with sixty-five present, each division being seated at separate tables. Colonial and patriotic decorations featured the dinner, which was followed by a short informal program, including a dance by Miss Doris Kearney, physical director of the Y. W. C. A.; patriotic readings by Miss Anna Mashek and stories by Misses Dora Marshall and Carrie Marsh.

What you must have is real bran—KELLOGG'S BRAN, and if you will eat it regularly each day you will become a different person within a week or so. Kellogg's Bran, with its natural bulk, sweeps, cleanses and purifies. It not only gives relief, but it regulates the bowels. Every member of your family should eat it—every day—at least two tablespoonsful; in chronic cases as much with each meal.

Try Kellogg's Bran mixed with a hot cereal, or cook it with hot cereal, adding two tablespoonfuls of Bran for each person. Other popular ways are to sprinkle Kellogg's Bran on hot or cold cereals or to eat it as a cereal with hot milk. You can make delicious bakery products with Kellogg's Bran. Recipes on every package.

Kellogg's Bran is not only nationally sold in grocery stores, but can be had in individual packages in first-class hotels and clubs. Ask for it at your restaurant. Be certain to eat Kellogg's Bran daily for health's sake!

IF RHEUMATIC EAT NO SWEETS

Says Glass of Salts helps to overcome Rheumatism acid.

Rheumatism is easier to avoid than to cure, states a well-known authority. We are advised to dress warmly, keep the feet dry, avoid exposure, and above all, drink plenty of good water and avoid eating sweets of all kind.

Rheumatism is caused by body waste and acids resulting from food fermentation. It is the function of the kidneys to filter this poison from the blood. The pores of the skin are also a means of freeing the blood of this impurity. In damp and chilly weather the skin pores are closed, thus forcing the kidneys to do double work; they become weak and sluggish and fail to eliminate acids, which keeps accumulating and circulating through the system, eventually settling in the joints and muscles, causing stiffness, soreness and pain, called rheumatism.

At the first twinge of rheumatism get from any pharmacy about four ounces of Jad Salts; put a tablespoonful in a glass of water and drink before breakfast each morning for a week. This is helpful to neutralize acidity, remove waste matter, also to stimulate the kidneys, thus often ridding the blood of rheumatic poison.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is used with excellent results by thousands of folks who are subject to rheumatism.

FINE AND REMOVAL FOR CANDIDATES IN JUDICIAL ERMINE

Bill Would Prevent Judges Running for Office Without Quitting Bench

ASSEMBLY OFFERS MORE
ADVICE TO CONGRESS

Would Limit Inheritance to One Million

MADISON, Wis.—Without a record on the assembly sent to Congress the bill which would make it a penitentiary offense for any judge to be a candidate for or accept an office of public trust other than a judicial office while serving on the bench.

Would Bar Judges
This measure, introduced by the administration, is intended to prevent judges of any court of record in the state from entering political fields. It is an outgrowth of the candidacy of Judge Henry Grass, of Green Bay, for Congress in the Ninth Wisconsin district at the last election.

The bill of Assemblyman Oliver Green Bay puts both in the present statute prohibiting judges in circuit courts or the Supreme court from being a candidate for a political office. It prohibits a prison sentence of not less than one year and a fine of $5,000, together with loss of office, for any judge who violates its provisions.

New Advice to Congress
By a vote of 20 to 24 the assembly passed a resolution memorializing Congress to limit the amount of inheritance in this country to $1,000,000. All above that amount would be taken in taxes, should the sentiment of the resolution be accepted by Congress.

The assembly passed unanimously a bill introduced by Assemblyman Freeborn which would make it illegal for any concern manufacturing imitation dairy products to use any dairy word in labeling. A fine of $1,000 is provided. This proposal is aimed particularly at products made from various oils and represented with dairy symbols on their covers.

Repeal of Vaccination Law
Repeal of the compulsory vaccination law in effect throughout Wisconsin is asked in a bill brought into the legislature by Assemblyman John Peltier, Door county. The proposal is now introduced by title only but later will be completed the Door county legislator said.

A similar proposal was sponsored by Assemblyman Peltier two years ago and was successful in weathering the opposition in the assembly. It was killed in the senate by a narrow margin.

Simple Way to Get Rid of Blackheads

There is one simple, safe and sure way to get rid of blackheads, that is to dissolve them. Do this with the power of calcium phosphate, a true and drug store. Sprinkle a little of it on your skin, wash the parts and you will be surprised how the blackheads have disappeared. Big blackheads, little blackheads, no matter what size, are easily dissolved and disappear. Blackheads are simply a mixture of dust and dirt and secretions that form in the pores of the skin. The calcium phosphate and the water dissolve the blackheads so they wash right out, leaving the pores free and clean and in their natural condition.

MORE BOYS THAN GIRLS BORN IN TOMAH SINCE WAR

Records Show 587 Births in 1922; 325 Boys, 263 Girls; 303 Deaths in Year

TOMAH — Monroe county proved during the year 1922 the old saying that "a larger per cent of male children rather than girls are born following a war period. Statistics in the register of deeds office show that during the year just past, 587 births occurred, of which 325 were boys and twelve percent less or 263 were girls. During the year 1922, the Grim Reaper Death claimed 303 residents of the county. The coldest month of the year January showed the least number of deaths, and May the pleasantest month showed the greatest number, 37. During all other months the number of deaths ranged from 26 to 29. An average of twelve marriages per month or a grand total of 143 for the year occurred. June is the popular month for weddings. 27 nuptial events having occurred during the period. Statistics show a decreasing number of marriages in the county as years go by. This fact is accounted for in but one way—the increasing number of couples seeking other cities for the trying of the nuptial knot.

FELLOWSHIP OF PRAYER

Daily Lenten Bible reading and meditation prepared for Commission on Evangelism of Federal Council of Churches.

TUESDAY
The Disciples Called to Service

"And He appointed twelve that He might send them forth." Mark 3:14.

Read Mark 3:13-19.

"The Master called men to him, only to send them out." Meditation: Great multitudes followed Jesus. Just twelve were called to the special privilege of his closest companionship, but this was "that He might send them forth" to ministry like his. Christian privileges spell obligation for Christian service.

Hymn:

Help me the slow of heart to move
By some clear, winning word of love.
Teach me the wayward feet to stay,
And guide them in the homeward way.

Prayer: O God, our Heavenly Father, we thank thee for the gift of thy dear Son. Grant that we who have received him in our hearts may joyfully go forth with him on many errands. Bless those who toil for thee in far off places; comfort them in their loneliness; and unite our

"MY DEAR, USE POSLAM FOR THOSE PIMPLES"

This really happened—I couldn't help overhearing it. A motherly old lady dropped into the seat beside a well-dressed girl. "My dear," she said, "forgive my intruding, but you would be so pretty if you only had a clear, healthy skin. Why don't you use Poslam? It did such wonders for my daughter's face, too, that I can't help recommending it to young folks like you who need it. I just knew it would help you!" Her advice was so good that I pass it on to you. You can get Poslam—and Poslam Soap—at any drugstore. And not begin using them tonight! They will often clear away pimples in 24 hours. For trial sample, send 1c to POSLAM, 243 W. 47th St., New York.

work to theirs. Accept our gifts; receive our prayers; and use us for the sake of thy Son Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

Know the comfort of a healthy skin

Don't miss the joy of a brisk rub down because of eczema or some equally annoying eruption which makes your skin burn and sting whenever you touch it. No matter how severe or well established the case may be, Resinol rarely fails to produce the desired results.

Resinol Soap and Resinol Shaving stick complete the Resinol trio. Ask your druggist for them.

To do most good a food must taste good

THE crispness and flavor of Grape-Nuts help to make this delicious cereal food most nourishing.

From the very first taste of Grape-Nuts the digestive processes start converting the rich nutritive and mineral elements of this wheat-and-barley food into body-building material.

Grape-Nuts, with good milk, is a complete food, affording that real enjoyment so necessary to good digestion and perfect assimilation.

Spark the Human Engine with Eline Chocolate Bars

Eline's Sweet Milk Chocolate Bars provide proteins and carbohydrates necessary as fuel for the human engine; also vitamins to fire this fuel.

"Vitamines are absolutely indispensable to the diet," says Dr. H. Steenbock, a famous Physiological Chemist of the University of Wisconsin.

Eline Bars are supremely nourishing. They contain rich, plump cocoa beans—pure refined sugar—nourishing whole-cream milk from cows that feed in the fertile, emerald green fields of Wisconsin, where crystal pure water abounds in spring-fed lakes and babbling brooks. Cheap, off-color materials have no place in the Eline plant.

Eline Bars contain thoroughly roasted almonds of wonderful flavor.

Eline's is marvelously smooth and creamy in texture. It is the best chocolate you can buy, yet—it costs no more than common chocolate.

DEMOCRATS CALLED TO MEET SATURDAY TO DECIDE POLICY

DEMOCRACY VS. SOCIALISM ISSUE BEFORE THE STATE

Democrats Must Come to the Rescue Says Statement

MADISON Wis.—By The Associated Press.—Sounding the plea that Wisconsin must either "turn to the old democracy or go to Socialism," the Democratic party in the state Tuesday called a gathering of its political adherents to be held in Milwaukee, February 24.

"Now is the moment, now the hour, now the day, when Democrats should come to the defense of the state," a special committee composed of Thomas M. Kearney, Martin L. Lueck, Joseph Martin, Hubert O. Wolfe, and H. A. Moehlenpach, declared in its call to Democracy. "The time is here when the party must either admit its impotency or assert its power," the committee added.

Democrats are asked whether they shall "turn away from the ideals of the fathers of the Republic and contribute through indifference, to the continuation of the conditions of absolute political chaos now existing in this state."

"Shall Democrats join the wreckers of business the destroyers of peaceful relations, the teachers of hatred and class prejudices or shall they lend the fullest measure of power to profect the interests of the state, to protect its magnificent industries, its farmers, its wage earners, its homes, all that are dear to the people, from total destruction through the administration of the state government," the call added.

"If the Democrats of Wisconsin cannot save the state from these threatening dangers," it adds, "then the state stands defenseless. Those in power are killing every interest by reckless, unnecessary, extravagant taxation; by imposing government by boards, bureaus and commissions which give political employment for political purposes to a great army of unnecessary time servers. The Republican party, as represented or misrepresented by the machine dominated element now in power is helpless. The state must turn to the old Democracy or turn to Socialism. It is inevitable. The time is here and now, appealing to our patriotism, to our loyalty to the old creed of Democracy, when we must either admit our impotency or assert our power."

The Metropolitan Agent is a friend to the families he visits and helps them in case of sickness.

17,000 Agents visit the homes of 17,000,000 Industrial Policyholders weekly—telling them of the value of sanitation, fresh air and sunshine.

Among the useful booklets distributed by the Agents are those telling how to buy food, how to care for food, how to cook food, how to provide wholesome, nourishing food for the least money.

A Company is Great only as it Serves.
